

($25.00) fee, each member of the group shall comply with the procedures set forth in Subsection 13-30 (d) and pay a fee of twelve dollars ($12.00) each to the Town.

- f. Upon the receipt of the application, the Chief of Police shall investigate the applicant's reputation as to morals and integrity, and shall approve or disapprove the application and notify the applicant of this decision. In the event that the application is approved, a license shall be issued. Any applicant shall have the right of appeal to the Board of Selectmen if their application is disapproved.
- g. No license shall be transferred. Each license issued under the provisions of this Section shall continue in force for the length of time requested, but not to exceed one (1) year from the date of its issuance unless sooner revoked. Solicitors and canvassers when engaged in the business of soliciting or canvassing are required to display an identifying badge issued by the Chief of Police on a form as described within.
- h. The Chief of Police is hereby vested with jurisdiction over the revocation of licenses, which he may exercise for just cause. The Chief of Police shall also determine the hours of solicitations and canvassing. Any person whose license has been revoked shall have the right of appeal to the Board of Selectmen.
- i. An applicant requesting a renewal of a license must apply in person for such license renewal and provide such material as required by the Chief of Police. The Chief of Police shall keep a record of all licenses issued for a period of six (6) years. Should a license be revoked or should there be multiple complaints against the licensee, such information shall be transmitted by the Chief of Police to recognized consumer protection agencies.
- j. The police officers of the Town shall enforce this Section. Any person violating any provision of this Section shall upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of fifty dollars ($50.00) for each and every offense. (Bylaws Art. 78, 5-7-91)
