the manner provided by General Laws, Chapter 60, Section 2, and also to give to the treasurer as aforesaid an account of all charges and fees collected by you. And you are to make written return of said taxes and interest with your tax list and of your doings thereon at such times as the assessors shall in writing require.

But you are to complete, and make up an account of, the collection of the whole sum hereby committed to you, with interest, on or before June 30 of the fiscal year to which said tax list relates.

And if a person refuses or neglects to pay his tax for fourteen days after demand, you shall issue a warrant to collect said tax including interest, charges and fees. If a person refuses or neglects to pay his tax after you or your designee have notified the person by mail or other means that a warrant to collect has been issued, and you or your designee have exhibited a copy of the said warrant to collect, or delivered a copy thereof to the taxpayer, or left it at his last and usual place of abode, or of business, you or your designee may request a hearing in the district court having jurisdiction. Upon the issuance of the warrant to distrain or commit, you or your designee shall proceed to enforce the collection of said tax in accordance with the provisions of said court warrant.

And in the levy and collection of the amounts hereby committed to you, and of interest, and charges, and fees as provided by law, you are to have and to exercise all the powers conferred by the laws of this Commonwealth upon collectors of taxes.
