Economic Development Opportunities

Choose Millbury!
MILLBURY, MASSACHUSETTS

Millbury is a Preserve America community—Celebrating its bicentennial in 2013!

Millbury population: 13,261
Worcester County population: 798,552

Location...Location...Location

Direct access to the Mass Pike, Route 20, and Route 146

Driving Distance: to Downtown Worcester—5 miles to Providence—30 miles to Boston—45 miles

Cordis Mills—residential development

The Shoppes at Blackstone

Felter's Mill—mixed commercial development

Blackstone River Valley National Heritage Corridor
Economic Development Opportunities

Choose Millbury!
Rich History and Quality of Life

Quality and Affordable Housing

- Shoppes at Blackstone retail center
- Felter’s Mill mixed commercial development
- Available utilities: Blackstone Regional Sewer Treatment Plant; major gas pipeline and electrical substation
- Wheelabrator

Discover Marble and Granite in the Latti Farm Industrial park

Diverse economy—Commercial & Industrial

History—Blackstone River National Heritage Corridor

Millbury is well named, as the Blackstone River, Singletary Brook and other waterways powered mills making guns, lumber, paper, textiles and many other products.

Several sites were identified as Regional Priority Development Areas in the 2012 Blackstone Valley Prioritization Project

Please contact Laurie Connors, Town Planner: lconnors@townofmillbury.net or 508.865.4754

Brierly Pond Village—an over 55 community

Cronin Brook Heights

Blackstone River Bikeway

Asa Waters Mansion